01. Market Commentary

DSEX ended in red for the week decreasing by 73.85 points [1.34%] compared to the previous week. It stands at 5449.93 points.

The index continued its downward momentum from the previous week on account of selling pressure which outweighed any buying pressure from the bulls. The profit taking took place in the beginning of the week and was also present in the ending session of the week. Many of the investors were in the sidelines and preferred to observe the market activity as reflected by the significant fall of trading activity week over week.

Investor participation decreased significantly as reflected by decrease in average daily turnover by around 39% causing the average daily turnover to fall below BDT 750 Crore level. Investors' trades in this week focused on Pharmaceuticals scrips followed by Engineering and Bank scrips. In terms of sectoral returns, the Services & Real Estate sector posted 2.62% return while, the Financial Institutions sector went negative 6.51%.

Market capitalization stands at USD 59.5 Billion*.

*(USD 1 = BDT 121.80 as on September 18, 2025).
