01. Market Commentary

DSEX ended in red for the week decreasing by 141.57 points [2.82%] compared to the previous week. It stands at 4886.57 points.

Index has failed to sustain its strong bullish momentum for the last two weeks as the week began with selling spree by investors who preferred to take profits which have accrued over the past two weeks. Although bargain hunters helped move the index positive in the middle of the trading week, the index ended the week in the negative territory.

Investor participation decreased as reflected by decrease in average daily turnover by around 22% causing the average daily turnover to fall below BDT 500 Crore level. Investors' trades in this week focused on Textile scrips followed by Engineering and Pharmaceuticals scrips. In terms of sectoral returns, all sectors went negative, with the Services & Real Estate sector suffering the most with a fall of 11.88%

Market capitalization stands at USD 56.0 Billion*.

*(USD 1 = BDT 122.26 as on December 04, 2025).

02. Related Regulatory Decisions

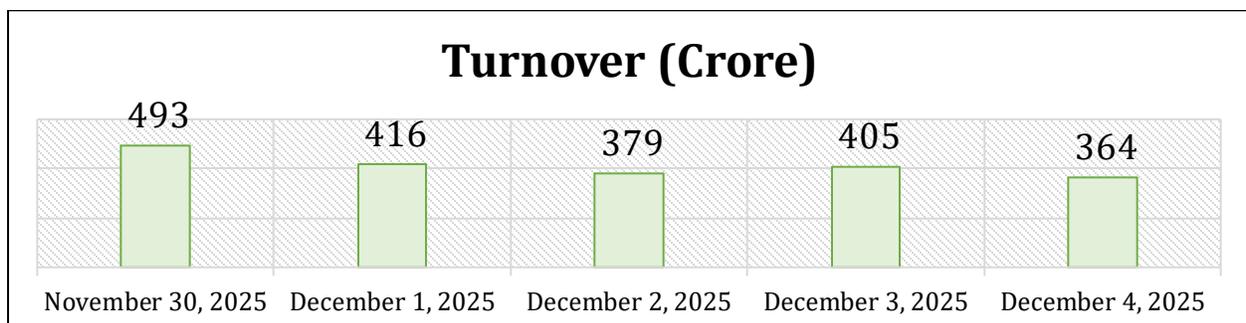

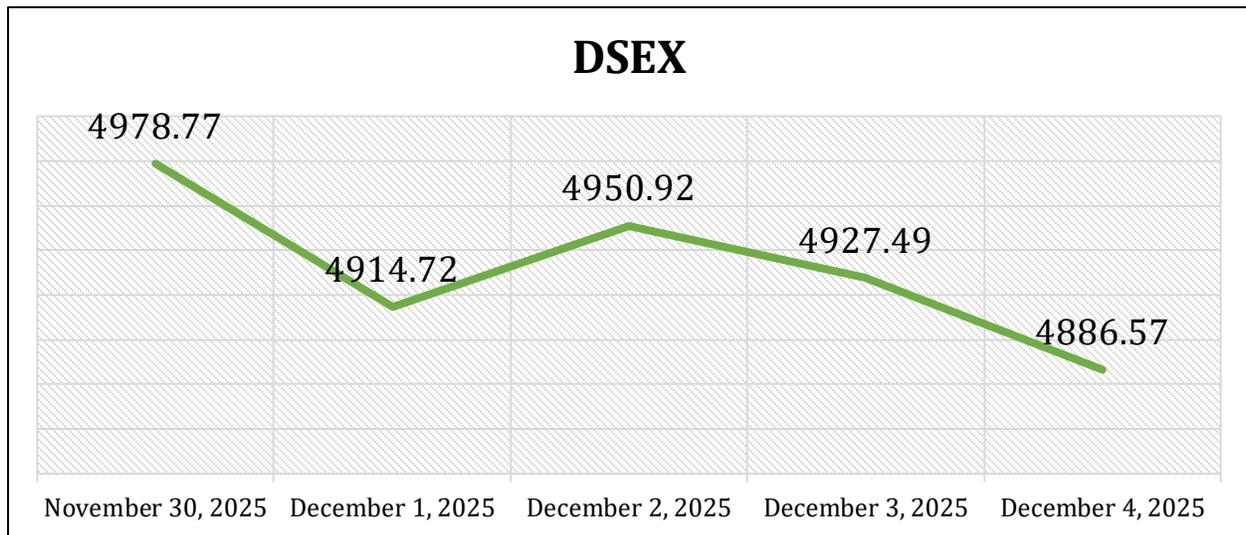

1. BSEC in its 986th commission meeting decided to extend the deadline for maintenance of negative equity and keeping provisions against unrealized losses by considering their board approved action plans for 11 brokers and merchant banks.
2. Bangladesh Bank in a circular allowed banks to partially write off bad and loss category loans with a slim chance of recovery. The component of the loan backed by collateral must be considered recoverable, with only the remaining unsecured portion eligible for write off.
