01. Market Commentary

DSEX ended in red for the week decreasing by 23.52 points [0.43%] compared to the previous week. It stands at 5452.06 points.

Index continued in the red as investors remain risk averse, selling off their positions as lackluster corporate earnings along with disappointing dividend announcements poured in amidst the ongoing domestic macroeconomic headwinds. The market began the week with selling pressure which eroded the index further by around 75 points. Although the index was positive in the final trading sessions of the week, it was not enough to override the negative fall coupled with low investor participation.

Investor participation continued to fall as this week it fell by 15% as compared to the previous week, wherein the average daily turnover fell below BDT 500 Crore level. Investors' trades in this week focused on Textile scrips followed by General Insurance and Engineering scrips. In terms of sectoral returns, the Mutual Funds sector was the highest positive while the Financial Institutions sector was the highest negative.

Market capitalization stands at USD 55.4 Billion*.

*(USD 1 = BDT 123.44 as on October 15, 2026).

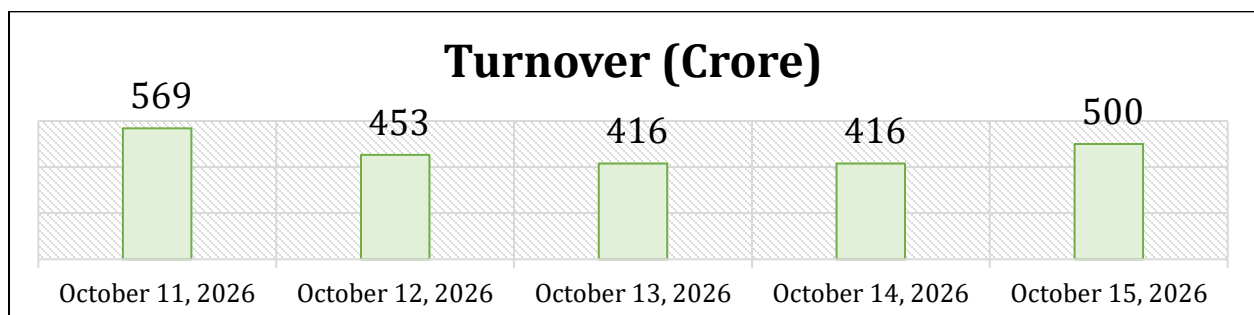

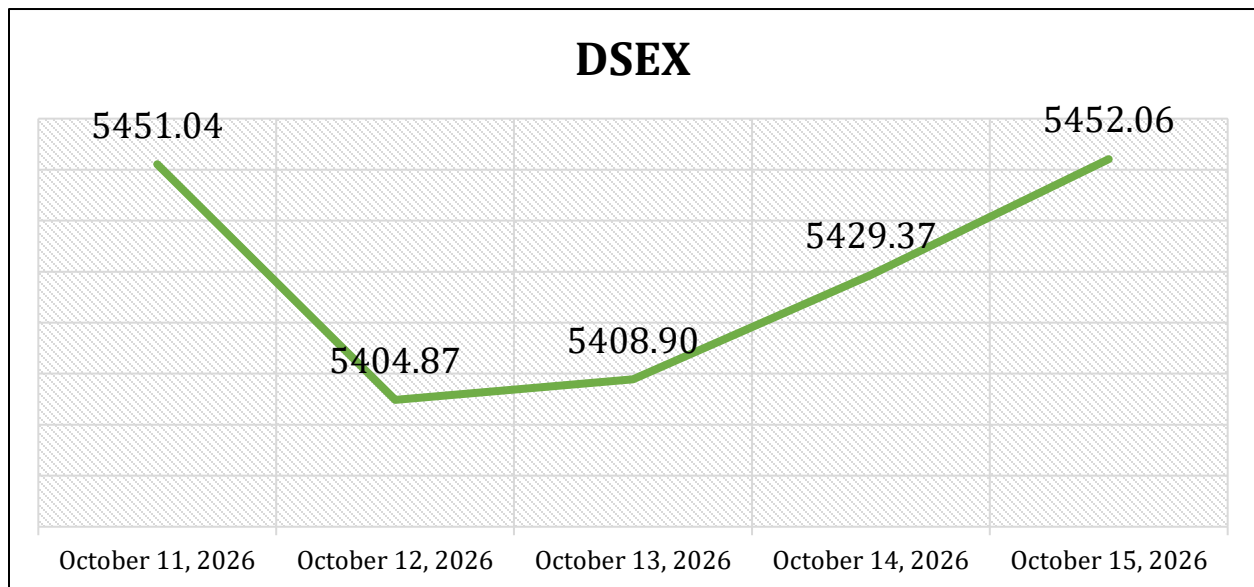

02. Related Regulatory Decisions

1. BSEC in its 1033rd commission meeting approved the following:
 - a. Deciding to take punitive action against those listed companies who are in non-compliance of dividend declaration compliance requirements as per commission directives.
 - b. Approval of availing of clean CIB report from Bangladesh Bank in case of appointment and reappointment of independent directors in listed companies.
