01.Market Commentary

DSEX ended in red for the week decreasing by 4.40 points [-0.08%] compared to the previous week. It stands at 5413.04 points.

Index continued its downward trend for 6 consecutive weeks due to dismal corporate earnings and dividend declarations along with existing geopolitical uncertainties impacting global energy prices which are undermining investors' sentiment regarding the market. The week witnessed a decrease of more than 100 points in the first three trading days. However, the market turned around as bargain hunters took the opportunity to accumulate beaten down scrips but the index ended in red to close out the week.

Investor participation increased this week as it rose by 21% as compared to the previous week, wherein the average daily turnover rose above BDT 500 Crore level. Investors' trades in this week focused on Textile scrips followed by General Insurance and Bank scrips. In terms of sectoral returns, the Textile sector was the highest positive while the Jute sector was the highest negative.

Market capitalization stands at USD 54.0 Billion*.

*(USD 1 = BDT 124.62 as on November 05, 2026).

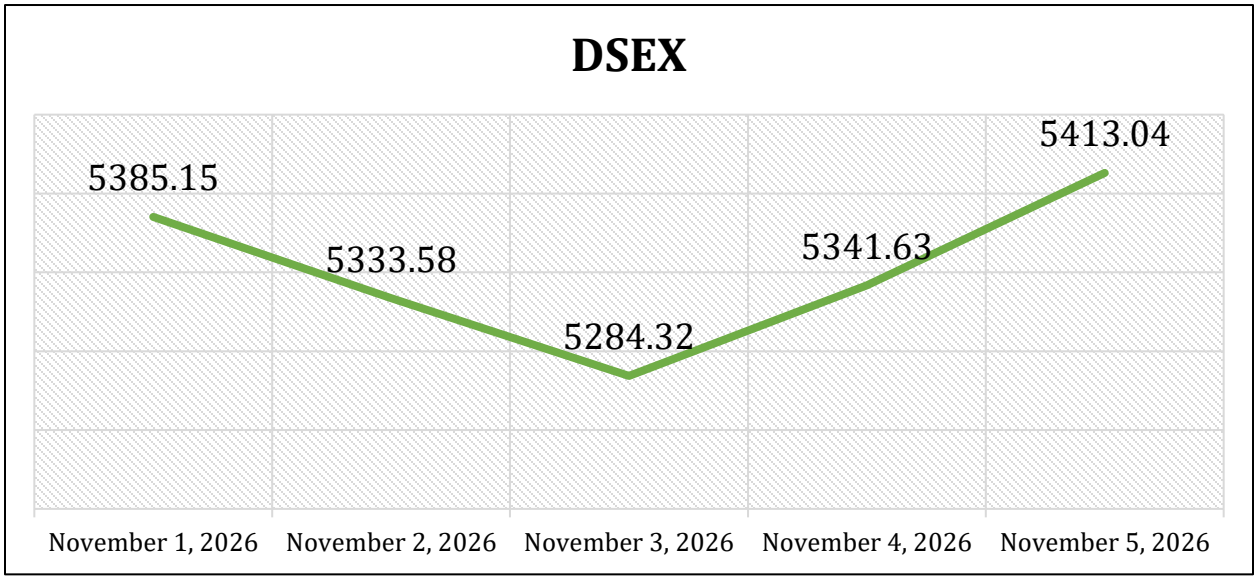

02.Related Regulatory Decisions

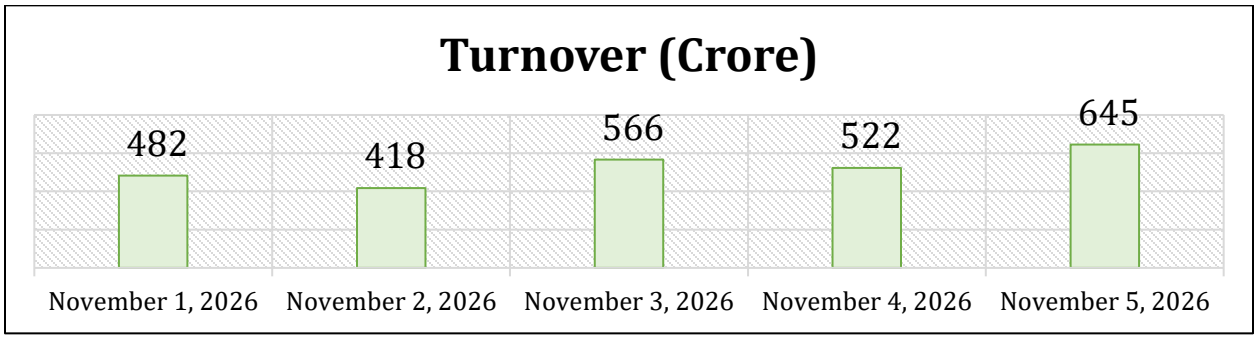

1. BB issued a circular allowing Bangladeshi resident company to issue preference shares in favor of non-resident investors subject to compliance of all applicable laws and authorization from Bangladesh Bank.
